 - Key Stakeholders
 - FY13 Priorities
- Technical Assistance
 - National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA)
 - NTTAC

Justice Assistance Grant (JAG)

- OJP's Flagship Grant Program: Seven purpose areas to build broad-based capacity.
- State Planning Process: JAG funding can be used to support state's/territory's existing statewide strategic plan.
- Strategic Planning Process:
 - Statewide strategic plan
 - Data and analysis (SACs)
 - Community engagement model
 - Participating stakeholders – must be inclusive!

JAG FY13 Priority Areas

- Reducing Gun Violence
- Indigent Defense
- Recidivism Reduction and Justice System Realignment
- Evidence-Based “Smart” Programs

Key Stakeholders

- Law Enforcement
- Courts
- Prosecutors
- Indigent Defense Providers
- Victims Advocates
- Corrections

Technical Assistance Partnership with NCJA

- State Administering Agency (SAA) Strategic Planning
 - Stakeholder outreach
 - Stakeholder engagement
- 13 out of 56 States have engaged with NCJA in this process over the last year
- NCJA's process includes:
 - Assessing extent of strategic planning
 - Inclusion of all criminal justice stakeholders
 - Development of strategic planning process

NTTAC

- BJA's National Training & Technical Assistance Center (NTTAC)
- Services provided through NTTAC cover a broad set of topic areas including training, information dissemination, technical assistance, and facilitation of multi-agency and cross-jurisdictional teams and working groups
- NTTAC works to improve the criminal justice system by providing rapid, expert, coordinated, and data-driven TTA to support practitioners in the effort to reduce crime, recidivism, and unnecessary confinement in state, local, and tribal communities

Practitioners

- Identify your SAA, state justice planning body and if available your local justice planning body
- Get Involved
 - Attend Meetings
 - Connect with members who represent your/overlapping service area
 - Get on list-serves/ mailing lists
- Planning Bodies
 - Strategic use of citizen and appointed membership
 - Enhanced use of the subcommittee structure
 - Stakeholder outreach
 - Legislative or Executive Branch Involvement

Local law enforcement

Annual Process

- Planning retreat – fall
 - Presentations from other boards, agencies
 - Teambuilding

- Communicate results to applicants

- Funding conference-spring

Unique Projects

EPIC – Evidence-Based Practices Implementation for Capacity

- Provides training, coaching, and mentoring in evidence-based practices for criminal justice professionals working with offenders. The initial efforts focus on Motivational Interviewing techniques and Mental Health First Aid.

Metro Crisis Services, Inc.

- First responders use the non-profit crisis line and intervention services as a referral source for persons with mental health and substance use disorders. Serves a 7 county area with 37 law enforcement agencies and 2.7 million people.

Lessons Learned

- Communication is never done.
- Reality bites.
 - Geographic coverage
 - Political will
 - Needs at local level may be so basic that strategic planning seems lost.

Accept any victory and move forward.
