

www.ncja.org

Byrne JAG—Flexible Funding to Prevent Crime, Protect Public Safety and Reduce Recidivism

Overview:

The Byrne Justice Assistance Grant program (Byrne JAG) is the nation's cornerstone justice assistance grant program, supporting the federal government's crucial role in improving state and local justice systems. Byrne JAG is flexible, allowing spending across eight broad purpose areas that enable states, localities and tribal nations to address their most pressing public safety challenges by designing complete programs or filling spending gaps.

Strategic Planning technical assistance from NCJA can help states determine priority areas and effective programs and initiatives to address specific needs.

The 8 Byrne JAG Purpose Areas (with examples of program types)

1. Law Enforcement

Law enforcement-led diversion, violent crime reduction, co-responder, equipment, personnel/operations, training & multi-jurisdictional task forces

2. Prosecution & Courts

Indigent defense, prosecution & specialty courts

3. Prevention & Education

Crime prevention, domestic violence/sex assault & at-risk youth prevention

4. Corrections, Community Corrections & Reentry

Alternatives to incarceration, probation/parole, reentry & special populations

5. Drug Treatment & Enforcement

Housing, community-based & secure facility-based treatment

6. Planning, Evaluation, & Technology Improvement

Criminal records improvement, forensic science, information sharing, outcome & program evaluation, strategic planning

7. Crime Victim & Witness

Human trafficking, restorative justice, victim services for adults & children

8. Mental & Behavioral Health

Assessment/evaluation, benefits eligibility/enrollment, crisis intervention team (CIT) training & suicide risk assessment, response & protocols

This document was created with the support of Grant No. 2019-YA-BX-K002 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the SMART Office, and the Office for Victims of Crime. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.